PERPETUUS

A FRAGILE GENESIS

38 Tulips
48 x 60"
Acrylic and Oil on Canvas
2021
$6,500.00

This personal work is part of an anecdote that involves a fall planting of 200 tulips. Through the winter the tulips gained strength and by spring began to sprout and bloom. A hungry fawn stumbled by one day and ate all but 38 of them. The work resonates with the virtue of patience, something lost is something gained, and serendipity hidden by rage and despair.
