A FRAGILE GENESIS

A Lie on a Wayward Smile
30 x 72"
Acrylic and Oil on Canvas
$6500.00

The painting is the first completed in a new body of work exploring the new consciousness of 2021. There are so many different feelings of a new beginning that feels as if the dawn brings so many opportunities and yet at the same time there is a pervasive feeling of doubt, fear, and distrust of what the future brings, and what waits in the shadows.
