

SCOTT ALLEN ROBERTS

PERPETUUS

TERMINAL BREAKS

Mile-Away-Milestone
72 x 96"

Acrylic and Oil on Canvas
Price available on request

Conceived and started before the quarantine period and finished shortly thereafter, the work resonates with ideas of the long road we have taken out of darkness and into a new dawn. A bandaged 'lucky' hare sits atop of a tortoise, a lean on the old anecdote. Questions arise if we have been moving too fast and need to slow down, something the quarantine made all of us do.